

first Summer Band

We make your event the one everyone raves about!

The key to making your event memorable is having your performers amaze, engage and interact with the audience – and that is exactly what First Summer does so well.

Stunning lead vocals and authentic, 100% live (i.e. NO BACKING TRACKS) reproduction of classic and modern party songs are guaranteed to capture the response of the crowd. A professional, hardworking outfit who are dedicated to giving everyone a show to remember, First Summer are available in many different guises to suit the needs of the occasion, from acoustic jazz sets to a full-on live party band experience. Their amazing and versatile singers can cover an enormous range of styles, and the whole band possess a flair for captivating and enrapturing the audience with their on-stage antics.

True entertainment comes from the ability to read and respond to the audience, and First Summer undeniably know how to do this to ensure the night is a success.

ABOUT THE BAND

First Summer is made up of a diverse group of individuals hailing from around the globe. With their collective years of experience both on and off the stage, they produce a sound that is unmatched in the Brisbane area. Having played together for almost 10 years, the band bring a level of professionalism and cohesiveness that is unlike any other.

Fronted by awarding winning, global performer, Asabi Goodman, clients can't help but to listen and move to the dancefloor when she sings.

First Summer can be booked for any and all occasions, including weddings, birthdays, corporate events, or whatever takes your fancy!
